Easter and Beyond

Today we celebrate Easter - the festival marking the great triumph of life over death.

Of course, this is not just a once a year celebration. Christians are sustained by this resurrection hope every day that they are on this earth. In fact, from the early days of the faith the Christian Church moved its day of weekly rest and worship from the Sabbath observed on Saturday to a special time of worship on Sunday in celebration of the day of resurrection.

For the next few weeks our worship themes will focus on the implications of our resurrection hope. The series is entitled:

"Humble Petitions for Uncertain Times."

April 28

"Alive? Can I really Believe that it's True?"

May 5 "Remove My Doubts and Fears."

May 12 "Prepare Me for What's Next."

May 19 "Keep Me Open to Great Things."

May 26 "Replace My Confusion with Praise."
