The Message Today:

"Your Bucket List and Other People"

"You have taught me since I was a child, and I never stop telling about your marvellous deeds. Don't leave me when I am old and my hair turns grey. Let me tell future generations about your mighty power.
Your deeds of kindness are known in the heavens. No one is like you!"

The Annual Meeting of the Alberton Congregation will be held immediately following the worship service today. You are encouraged to secure your coffee and refreshments promptly so that the meeting may commence without delay. If you have not already received one, copies of the Annual Reports are available.

In the event of a winter storm and we decide to cancel a worship service the decision will be posted to the church website by 7:30 am and an effort is then made to notify all regular attendees by phone and/or email.

Pets and People

Anticipation is growing!

It is hoped that many who have chosen to participate by celebrating the pets or animals that God has brought into their lives will bring in their photos and material next Sunday.

That will assist us in estimating how much display space will be required and avoid a feverish rush at the last moment.

Of course, you don't have to have a specific pet to honour to be part of this celebration. Our world is full of people who have been blessed by pets. There are also many who have been blessed by the role that helper animals have played in their lives.

The wonder of God's creation is exemplified in the relationship that God has established between animals and human beings.
