Go now in peace. Never be afraid.

God will go with you each hour of every day.

Go now in faith, steadfast, strong and true.

Know he will guide you in all you do.

Go now in love, and show you believe.

Reach out to others so all the world can see.

God will be there, watching from above,

Go now in peace, in faith and in love .

Coming in Worship

We are in the midst of a series of sermons that highlight the unique contribution that each of the gospel writers makes to our understanding of the life and ministry of our Lord.

Our series on the gospel writers will be followed by two services, February 17 and 24, in which we will focus on the crucial story of the establishment of the Christian Church as recounted in the Acts of the Apostles.

The Acts of the Apostles, penned by Luke, provides us with a historical account of the decades immediately following the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. It also supplies us with "A Handbook for Life in the Church" and a practical demonstration of "Taking the Message to the World."

Requests for Prayer

Requests for prayer for inclusion in our worship services are always welcome. We also encourage you to be faithful in remembering in your prayers those in the congregation and community that you know are facing challenges or who have special needs.
