Pets and People - Feb. 16th.

The day is almost here!

It is hoped that many who have chosen to participate by celebrating the pets or animals that God has brought into their lives have already brought in their photos and display material Now we can plan how much display space will be required and avoid a feverish rush at the last moment.

However, if you have forgotten, even next Sunday is not too late for you to be included.

Of course, you don't have to have a specific pet to honour to be part of this celebration.
Our world is full of people who have been blessed by pets. There are also many who have been blessed by the role that helper animals have played in their lives.

The wonder of God's creation is exemplified in the relationship that God has established between animals and human beings.
