The Alberton elders will meet on Tuesday evening, June 25th., at 7 pm.

Once again Dr. Bob is extending his summer challenge. This year's Biblical based challenge will ask participants to commit to setting aside about 20 minutes a day for between 4 to 6 weeks for reading and reflection. The material for the challenge is now available.

2019 Summer Challenge

You are invited to set aside about twenty minutes a day for a month or so this summer and devote that time to reading and reflecting on the Gospel of John.

To participate simply ask the minister for a copy of the Sumer Challenge material for 2019.

The Season of Pentecost

The worship themes for June 16th and 23rd will focus on some of the implications for us of God's gift of the Holy Spirit. The general theme for these two services will be, "Bringing Faith to Life."

An Experiment with Worship Music

In Annette's absence on Sunday, June 30th, we are going to experiment with the use of digitalized music in our worship service. This will allow us to explore a new option for use on some of those occasions when our regular church pianist may not be available.
