The Christian Year

We are about to enter that segment of the Christian Year that involves the celebration of our Lord's Ascension and the outpouring of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost. Though not as strongly celebrated in our tradition as some other seasons in the Christian Year these are critically important observations for our faith.

These events are critical to the fulfillment of the "Great Commission" issued by Jesus - "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel." Without the empowering presence and strength of the Holy Spirit this objective has no hope of fulfillment.

So we will remember and celebrate all that the Lord has done for the blessing and equipping of his people.

June 2 - Ascension Sunday (Communion)

June 9 - Pentecost Sunday

"Bringing Faith to Life."
