For the Story of Grace

The whole of the New Testament is focused on God's grace as it is revealed in His incarnate Son Jesus Christ. John opens his Gospel with just such a testimony.

John 1:14-18

New International Version

¹⁴ The Word became flesh and made his dwelling among us. We have seen his glory, the glory of the one and only Son, who came from the Father, full of grace and truth.

¹⁵ (John testified concerning him. He cried out, saying, "This is the one I spoke about when I said, 'He who comes after me has surpassed me because he was before me.'") ¹⁶ Out of his fullness we have all received grace in place of grace already given. ¹⁷ For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. ¹⁸ No one has ever seen God, but the one and only Son, who is himself God and^{is} is in closest relationship with the Father, has made him known.
